

The Safety Pledge: A Commitment to Life

National Safety Day & Beyond

Safety is not a regulation. It is a value we live by.

MARCH 4th NATIONAL SAFETY DAY

A DAY OF REDEDICATION

On March 4th every year, organizations take the Safety Pledge to show their commitment to keeping workplaces safe and healthy.

While safety is a daily practice, this day serves as our annual anchor point—a moment to pause, reflect, and renew our vows to protect one another.

MORE THAN WORDS

The Safety Pledge is not just a ceremonial statement. It is a serious promise made by workers, leaders, and outside workers.

The Goal: To ensure safety, health, and the environment are taken care of properly.

The Takeaway: This pledge reminds us that keeping safe is a collective responsibility—something everyone has to do together.

I SOLEMNLY AFFIRM...

“On this day, I solemnly affirm that I will rededicate myself to the cause of safety, health and protection of environment and will do my best to observe rules, regulations and procedures and develop attitudes and habits conducive for achieving these objectives.”

Focus: Observing rules, following procedures, and developing the right safety attitude.

Understanding the Stakes

I fully realize that accidents and diseases are a drain on the national economy and may lead to disablements, deaths, harm to health and damage to property, social suffering and general degradation of environment.

Prevention & Protection

“I will do everything possible for the prevention of accidents and occupational diseases and protection of environment in the interest of self, family, community, organization and the nation at large.”

Action: Moving from passive realization to active prevention for the benefit of all.
